Generation Four

4. John Lee Dr. #541, born 1670, died 1738. He married Mary #542.

Children:

5. i. Godfrey Lee #539 born 1707.

Generation Five

5. Godfrey Lee #539, born 1707.

According to abstracts of land patents in the colony of North Carolina 1735-1764 by Margaret M. Hofman, on June 5, 1740 Godfrey Lee bought 640 acres of land in Edgecombe County on the south side of Town Creek.

He married Sarah #540.

Children:

6. i. Samuel Lee Sr. #537 born About 1735.

Generation Six

6. Samuel Lee Sr. #537, born About 1735 Edgecombe County, NC.

Samuel Lee and his wife, Elizabeth, sold a tract of 640 acres on the bank of Town Creek on November 28, 1758, as noted in abstracts of Edgecombe County, N. C. 1759-1772. It is reasonable to assume that these two references are to the same tract of land. By 1797, Samuel Lee Sr. lived in Newbern district of Johnston County, North Carolina. Samuel was listed on the 1797 census as the head of the household. Then in 1800 there were both a Samuel, Sr. and a Samuel, Jr. listed as heads of households in the same county. This would be Godfrey's son, Samuel & Samuel's first son, Samuel Jr. Not much is known about Samuel Sr. except that in 1797 he and his wife, Elizabeth, had two sons over sixteen years of age; one son under sixteen; one daughter; and one slave. Since Samuel Sr. was sixty-two years old at the time, it is quite possible that many of their children were already married and gone from home. In the 1800 North Carolina census he had one male child, between sixteen and twenty-six and one female the same age. No doubt his wife had died within the past three years. He also had one free person and four slaves in his household. Nothing of his death or burial is known.

He married Elizabeth #538.

Children:

7. i. Samuel Lee Jr. #229 born 1774.

Generation Seven

7. Samuel Lee Jr. #229, born 1774 in Johnston County, NC., died Before 1850 in Mississippi.

He and his wife moved to Mississippi before 1820.

(1) Married 1798, Lucy Ann Bunn #230.

Lucy: Was the mother of fourteen children, 6 sons and 8 daughters. Most of them were born in North Carolina. Lucy was 1/2 Choctaw or Cherokee Indian.

(2) He married Sarah Shay #877.

According to the Wayne County, Mississippi census, Sarah had 4 sons by a previous marriage. Sarah and Samuel had 3 more children, 1 daughter and 2 sons. This made Samuel the natural father of 17 children and the step-father of 4. This made Samuel the natural father of 17 children and the step-father of 4. This accounts for the 21 children that family lore says he had.

(3) He married Patricia Overstreet #878.

Children by Lucy Ann Bunn:

8. i. Samuel Lee #879 born 1799.
9. ii. Jacob Walker Lee Sr. #133 born May 26 1801.

12. John Lee #69, born Jan 05 1836 in Hickory, Newton County, MS., died Feb 13 1899 in Crecy, Trinity County, TX., buried in Apple Springs, Trinity County, TX., cemetery Bennett Cemetery.
John lee came to Polk County, Texas in 1853, where they lived until about the middle of the 1870's. They moved to Trinity County where Mary died on Dec. 18 1879. John was a veteran of the confederate army. His military records states that he was six feet tall with a dark complexion, black eyes, and black hair. He enlisted on June 13, 1864 in company F, 22nd Texas infantry but was discharged on Nov. 9, 1864 due to physical disability. He returned home where he engaged in farming. Tragedy struck the lee family on Feb. 13, 1899. A winter storm was in progress, making the ground slick with ice. While carrying a stick of wood for the fireplace, perhaps a large back log, John slipped and fell. The wood crushed his head and broke his neck, killing him instantly. He and both his wives, as well as at least fifteen of his children, are buried in Bennett Cemetery near Apple Springs in Trinity County, Texas.

He enlisted in the confederate army and served until he was captured. He was imprisoned in Ohio and kept so long after the end of the war that his wife thought that he was dead. Believing that she was a widow, she remarried. When William was released and heard the news of his wife's remarriage, he decided just to disappear rather than to cause her trouble. It was many years before he was heard from again. It's been said that during some of that time he was an Indian Scout for the Government. William eventually settled in Weldon, Decatur County, Iowa where he married Henrietta, daughter of Henry Branscomb. In the fall of 1906 William rode in to Medora, Billings County, North Dakota on a freight train. He filed on a homestead seven miles south of Medora on the east side of the, little Missouri river and then returned to his home in Weldon, Iowa. The next spring (1907), he and his sons returned to Medora and built a log house and other buildings. Some of the sons also filed on homesteads in the community then returned to Iowa for their families and their mother.

17. Nancy Adaline Lee #141, born May 24 1845 in Hickory, Newton County, MS., died May 09 1901, buried in Streetman, Navarro County, TX., cemetery Birdston Cemetery.

The story goes that there was an epidemic of some disease raging through the community where they lived. Tyson was helping care for the sick and dying neighbors, when he became ill himself. Realizing that he had the dreaded disease and that his chance for survival was slim, his main thought was to save his wife and child. He returned to the front yard of their home, called out Adeline, and told her to take the baby and leave by the back door and not to come back. She did as requested. He died, but she and her baby were spared. Soon after Tyson's death Nancy met and married George, they lived in Leon County a few years but later moved to Freestone County, TX., to the Birdston Community where they lived out the rest of their life.

(1) Married in Mississippi, Tyson #225.

31. William Soloman Lee #100, born Nov 26 1881 in Crecy, Trinity County, TX., died May 20 1933, buried in Apple Springs, Trinity County, TX., cemetery Bennett Cemetery.

William was known as Will in the community of Crecy, TX. At the age of 29 Will suffered a Stroke. He had crops in the fields and small children in the house. Jennie tended to him, the crops, and the children. Jennie had a hard time but she did it. Will got over the stroke and went back to farming. Farmers would borrow the money to plant the crops. When the crops came in, they would pay back the banker. If the crops didn't make enough to pay the banker back, the bank would take their animals. During the winter months, Will would chop wood for the fireplace and fix fences. Jennie was a midwife and sometimes she was a lot like a doctor. She would tend to the sick. Jennie delivered lots of babies in her lifetime. Jennie could really cook and people loved to eat her cooking. On Sunday, twenty to thirty neighbors, friends and family would come by to eat. Will died on May 20, 1933 at five minutes after twelve from a heart attack. After Will's death Jennie had a difficult time, she still had children at home, age's eight and ten; so they moved around a good bit. She made very little as a midwife. Jennie married the second time to doe turner. Jennie lee died February 11, 1951 of diabetes and other complications. Written by: Melinda Gale Campbell #120 Sept 8 1956 - Nov 29 1990

Though I never met Melinda I was deeply saddened by the news of her passing. I first contacted Melinda in 1985 thanks to information supplied to me by Mrs. Elaine Ingram Lockhart, Trinity County Clerk in Groveton, TX. We learned after corresponding that we were cousins. We wrote and talked several times on the phone and learned that we shared a common interest, researching our family trees. I would like to dedicate this section covering the Campbell Family and all families connected to it to Melinda's memory, God rest her soul. Also I'd like to thank Desiree (Melinda's Sister) whom I haven't met either for her time and effort sending me the information that I requested. Melinda's death was caused by a blunt trauma to the back. She was never married, and had no children. Occupation: she did everything, and worked very hard at it.
